SUNDAY MORNING

1. What does it mean to be righteous? Why is the term "righteousness" central to the Bible's entire message?
2. How does our Shepherd implode our self-righteous standing
 - a. On the law?
 - b. On our repentance?
 - c. On our unworthiness?
3. Christ's righteousness involves His active and passive obedience. What do these two important terms mean?
4. Has Christ's righteousness become your all-in-all? If so, how did that happen?
5. How does Christ's imputed righteousness lead to His imparted righteousness?
6. Provide two reasons why sheep need to be led.
7. Despite their similarities, how can justification promote sanctification? How does justification lead to sanctification?
8. How are God's sheep established and preserved? Why do they love God's name so much?
