1. There would be _____ in response to Tyre's destruction.

a. Tyre was the _____ city of international commerce, but was guilty of unjust and covetous practices.

b. This is a warning that the _____ of money is the root of all sorts of evil.

2. The destruction of Tyre was the work of _____.

a. God is sovereign over _____, powerful leaders, and influential people.

b. _____ is a serious offense against the Lord and is deserving of His judgment.

3. God continued to be at _____ in Tyre.

a. God decreed that Tyre would be forgotten for a time but then be allowed to go back its improper _____ practices.

b. God will bring about a remarkable work of _____ among the people of Tyre.

"He describes, in a few words, the repentance of Tyre, who, having _____ been addicted to avarice, has been converted to Christ, and will no longer labor to amass riches, but will employ them in kind and generous actions." - John Calvin

c. This is a reminder that as Christians, our labor and our profit should be seen as " _____ to the Lord".
