

Who Am I? Mark 8:27-30

The Big Question ... _____ is _____?

The Situation ... The disciples are struggling because Jesus isn't meeting their _____.

The Location ... Caesarea Philippi

- Within Israel's borders, you can't be farther away from _____.
- Jesus is calling the disciples to make a clean break from the empty, dead religion of the Pharisees—and to fully embrace the _____ they have with Him.
- Is likely the most _____ place in Israel.
- Is a city originally named after _____—the half-man, half-goat in Greek mythology.
- Is where Jesus asks His men to confess Him as the one and only Son of God—the _____ to God.
- Is a lot like our world—and so, if you confess Jesus as the one and only Lord and Savior, it's going to put you at odds with many of the _____ and _____ people in your world.
- Either Jesus is Lord _____ or He's not Lord _____.

The Question ... "Who am I?"

- The Disciples: "Word on the street is that you are John the Baptist, or Elijah, or one of the prophets."
- Jesus: "If you've seen me, you've seen the _____." (John 14:9)
"Before Abraham was, I _____." (John 8:58)
"Whoever believes in the _____ has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him." (John 3:36)
- Jesus asks, "What do _____ say?"
- Peter answers, "You are _____."
- Jesus says, "Flesh and blood _____ revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 16:17)

The Applications

1. It's _____ about _____ in our church gatherings.
2. We _____ with the world.
3. We're _____ with Christ in _____ life.

Philippians 1:21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."