

The Gospel of Self-Denial
Romans 15:1-13

- I. Bearing The Weakness of the Other (1-3)
 - A. A reminder about the strong and the weak
 - B. Our lives are not to be about pleasing ourselves
 - C. We are to seek the benefit of our neighbor
- II. Persevering In Doing What Is Good (4-6)
 - A. This is a difficult thing, self-denial
 - B. We have a strong testimony from Scripture about this
 - C. We are called to “persevere”
- III. God In Christ Has Done This For All Kinds of People (7-13)
 - A. Christ accepts us to the glory of God, we should accept one another in the same way
 - B. Christ became a servant to both the Jew and the Gentile
 - C. Where does our joy, peace and hope come from? Believing on the promises of God, in Christ, by the Holy Spirit.
