

“Rash Oaths and Woeful Women!”

Some thoughts from Judges 21

Pr. Gregg Hensel

October 3, 2021

Introduction

- I. The Pain of _____ Oaths (21:1-7).
- II. A Savage _____ (21:8-15).
- III. The _____ at Shiloh (21:16-24).
- IV. A _____ Conclusion (21:25).

Conclusion

Is Jesus really the King of your life?

Application

1. Judges is part of God’s _____ to man. It is holy, good, and true, and we need it.
2. Judges shows what happens when man does not _____ God, but trusts in his own ways and wisdom.
3. Judges shows that people are prone to trust their own eyes (experience) more than the _____ Word of God.
4. God is always in control, and He will not be _____ by the sinful choices of men.
5. God’s grace and mercy are at work even in the darkest of situations. Man’s _____ does not mean God’s absence.
6. God’s _____ is not put away by man’s unfaithfulness. God’s people still exist because God does not change.
7. Judges longs for a good king. Only David’s _____ could be the true King, the true Faithful One, the Perfect Deliver, the Cleanser of our hearts, and the One who lifts up out of darkness into the light of life.