

“Trusting God in a Political World”

Acts 25:1-12

Introduction:

Proposition: We live in a sin cursed world. But that does not mean that we have to emulate the world. We serve a different Lord who has provided a different standard to follow in order to live our lives to please Him. Are you aware of that standard? If so, does it inform and guide your day to day decisions?

I. When is it wrong to be religious?

II. When is it wrong to just get along?

III. When is it right to assert your rights?

Conclusion:
