That No One Be Moved

Lessons from Longing

- Standing in affliction
- Have a framework for suffering in place before you suffer so you can do so well
- Don't make the mistake of suffering in isolation
- Afflictions are inevitable; growing through them is not
- Beware of the Tempter, but don't go Devil-hunting
- Thankfulness, perspective and serving others—secret weapons for standing well
- Prayer—live in the Psalms, and don't let your theology crush your calling out
