

GOSPEL OF MARK
Humble Perseverance
Mark 7:24-30

Mac Williams, Pastor
January 12, 2014

1. Faith can be clearly seen in _____ prayer.

*"The faith of the Syrophenician woman contrasts dramatically with the determined _____ of the Pharisees and the scribes from Jerusalem, while her witty reply to Jesus indicates a degree of understanding which puts the disciples to shame."
- William Lane*

a. Faith recognizes our personal _____ to fix things on our own.

b. Faith requires a full submission to the Lord's _____ and authority.

c. Faith submits to God's sovereign _____.

2. Faith can be clearly seen in _____
prayer.

a. Persevering prayer not only brings requests to the Lord but _____ to ask.

b. Persevering prayer continues in spite of _____ that arise.

"She turned the word of seeming reproach, house dogs, into a reason for optimism, thereby transforming an impending _____ into a brilliant victory." - William Hendriksen

c. Persevering prayer _____ the Lord's commands in faith.

*"(The woman) placed herself unconditionally under Jesus' lordship and received His acknowledgment and promise: 'on the ground of this saying, _____.'"
- William Lane*