

“Faithful Is He Who Calls You”

Exodus 2:23-3:22

Introduction:

Proposition: The prophet Jonah had to learn the hard way that "Those who regard worthless idols forsake their own mercy. But ... Salvation is of the LORD." (Jonah 2:8-9). J.I. Packer summarized this biblical truth thus “God Saves Sinners.” At the same time the Lord chooses to use feeble instruments like Moses (and us) to bear the life-changing truth of God’s Word to a lost and dying world. Can we learn from others or must we learn the hard way?

I. How bad can it get? So bad that only God can save us.

II. God chooses to use the most unlikely candidates

III. What has the Lord called you to be and to do?
