

ISAIAH

A Fruitful Ingathering Isaiah 27:1-13

Mac Williams, Pastor
January 17, 2016

1. God promises certain judgment on His enemies and gracious _____ for His Church in all her affliction.

a. The enemies of the Lord are like a great _____ that appears to the Church to be overwhelming, but God will subdue them.

b. The enemies of the Lord are allowed to _____ the Church in many ways, but she is God's vineyard and is under His loving care.

1) The Lord will _____ His Church by cultivating and protecting it.

2) The Lord gives assurance to His Church that they are not under His _____.

3) There is _____ for the enemies of the Church if they will turn to the Lord.

4) The Lord will so bless His Church, that her fruitfulness will _____ the whole world.

2. During times of judgment on God's enemies, the Lord works to _____ His Church.

a. The Lord's chastisement of His people is not as severe as His punishment of His enemies. Be _____.

b. A greater purity in life will result in the Lord's chastening work in the lives of believers. Be _____.

c. If lesser judgments are not effective, the Lord will send greater ones. Be _____.

d. The Lord will gather His people by the gospel of Jesus Christ to worship as one at Mount Zion, that is, to His Church. Be _____.