

YOUR KINGDOM COME

Kingdom Living

Do Not Be Anxious

Matthew 6:25-34

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Father God, when you open your hand all creation is satisfied. You alone sustain, provide, keep and care for all that is. You are perfect in your wisdom and show yourself glorious in all your ways. We confess the morning, Lord, that our hearts are often overwhelmed with anxiety, worry and fear. We frantically run around frustrated, stressed and burdened. We look at each day with dread and disappointment instead of hope and joy. Lord, help us. Grant your Word to triumph in our hearts of doubt and despair and cause your Spirit to stir us toward hope, joy and confidence as we seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness that we might rest secure in the shadow of your wings, in the strong and sure refuge we have in Jesus Christ our Lord, and Savior. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

1. Because Life is more than our Possessions (vv. 25-30)
2. Because God knows what we Need (vv. 31-33)
3. Because Each Day has its own Trouble (vv. 34)

Central Textual Truth

Jesus is teaching his disciples to be not anxious while pursuing the kingdom.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to not be anxious about pursuing the kingdom.