

Studies in Job
When I Hoped for Good, Evil Came
Job 29-30

29 – Job’s former happy days
30- Job’s present miserable condition
31- a vindication of his righteousness.

I. Job recalls his former days of God’s friendship (29:1-25)

- A. The days when God watched over Job (1-6)

- B. The days when Job was respected (7-11)

- C. The days when Job was a deliverer (12-17)

- D. Job thought he would live a long, fruitful life (18-20)

- E. The days when Job spoke and people listened (21-25)

II. Job tells of his present humiliation and rejection (30:1-32)

- A. The riffraff mock Job (1-15)
 - 1. The riffraff described (1-8)

 - 2. Their mockery of Job (9-15)

- B. Job accuses God and agonizes over being rejected (16-32)
 - 1. His accusation against God (16-23)

 - 2. The broken golden rule (24-31)

Conclusion

Studies in Job
When I Hoped for Good, Evil Came
Job 29-30

29 – Job’s former happy days

30- Job’s present miserable condition

31- a vindication of his righteousness.

I. Job recalls his former days of God’s friendship (29:1-25)

- A. The days when God watched over Job (1-6)

- B. The days when Job was respected (7-11)

- C. The days when Job was a deliverer (12-17)

- D. Job thought he would live a long, fruitful life (18-20)

- E. The days when Job spoke and people listened (21-25)

II. Job tells of his present humiliation and rejection (30:1-32)

- A. The riffraff mock Job (1-15)
 - 1. The riffraff described (1-8)

 - 2. Their mockery of Job (9-15)

- B. Job accuses God and agonizes over being rejected (16-32)
 - 1. His accusation against God (16-23)

 - 2. The broken golden rule (24-31)

Conclusion

Studies in Job
When I Hoped for Good, Evil Came
Job 29-30

29 – Job’s former happy days
30- Job’s present miserable condition
31- a vindication of his righteousness.

I. Job recalls his former days of God’s friendship (29:1-25)

- A. The days when God watched over Job (1-6)

- B. The days when Job was respected (7-11)

- C. The days when Job was a deliverer (12-17)

- D. Job thought he would live a long, fruitful life (18-20)

- E. The days when Job spoke and people listened (21-25)

II. Job tells of his present humiliation and rejection (30:1-32)

- A. The riffraff mock Job (1-15)
 - 1. The riffraff described (1-8)

 - 2. Their mockery of Job (9-15)

- B. Job accuses God and agonizes over being rejected (16-32)
 - 1. His accusation against God (16-23)

 - 2. The broken golden rule (24-31)

Conclusion