Prayer Requests:

- strength and endurance in the planting of a church in Flower Mound
- wisdom for our Elders as they work on our behalf
- our men to be ordained/installed to the offices of Elder and Deacon
- the spiritual growth of our families and for our times of family worship
- our friends at East Texas Reformed Fellowship as they seek a pastor
- our sister churches in the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery
- the Manfredas in their adoption and foster care ministry
- the Silva family, for health for Jenny and baby
- the health of Judy Austin
- the persecuted church overseas
- the gospel to be preached in the Dallas/Fort Worth area
- a national recognition of the Kingship of Christ
- a love for God's law, the keeping and adoring of the Sabbath Day
- that churches would worship God as he has commanded

Dates to Remember

Organization Service	March 6, 2015
Synod Home Mission Board Meeting in Dallas	April, 2015

Please remember that this is the Lord's Day and that His ownership of the day should guide our conversations and our actions throughout the day.

Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Mission Church of the
Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
2250 Morriss Road, Suite 214 Flower Mound, TX 75028

All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O Lord,
When they hear the words of Your mouth.
Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the Lord,
For great is the glory of the Lord.
Though the Lord is on high, yet He regards the lowly;
But the proud He knows from afar.

Psalm 138:4-6

WCF I, VII. All things in Scripture are not alike plain in themselves, nor alike clear unto all; yet those things which are necessary to be known, believed, and observed, for salvation, are so clearly propounded and opened in some place of Scripture or other, that not only the learned, but the unlearned, in a due use of the ordinary means, may attain unto a sufficient understanding of them. VIII. The Old Testament in Hebrew ...and the New Testament in Greek...being immediately inspired by God, and by his singular care and providence kept pure in all ages, are therefore authentic; so as in all controversies of religion the Church is finally to appeal unto them. IX. The infallible rule of interpretation of Scripture, is the Scripture itself; and therefore, when there is a question about the true and full sense of any scripture (which is not manifold, but one), it may be searched and known by other places that speak more clearly. X. The Supreme Judge, by which all controversies of religion are to be determined, and all decrees of councils, opinions of ancient writers, doctrines of men, and private spirits, are to be examined, and in whose sentence we are to rest, can be no other but the Holy Spirit speaking in the Scripture.

WCF XV, V: Men ought not to content themselves with a general repentance, but it is every man's duty to endeavor to repent of his particular sins, particularly.

WCF XV, VI: As every man is bound to make private confession of his sins to God, praying for the pardon thereof, upon which, and the forsaking of them, he shall find mercy: so he that scandalizeth his brother, or the Church of Christ, ought to be willing, by a private or public confession and sorrow for his sin, to declare his repentance to those that are offended; who are thereupon to be reconciled to him, and in love to receive him.
