

“The King’s Messengers”

You Go Where Jesus Himself Will Go: In Salvation Or Judgment!

Luke 10:1-16

There is an interesting textual variant in our passage today. Did Jesus send out seventy-two “others” or seventy? There seems to be an important OT connection here, although scholars debate exactly what linkage is intended. However Jesus labors to mobilize and energize his followers “to go where he himself was about to go” (v1). He commissioned them – and us -- to evangelize with the message that “the kingdom of God has come near” (v 9, 11, 16). Let us hear and receive this “Great Commission” of Luke’s Gospel!

I. _____ at the happiness of _____ and the horrors of _____. (v 10-15)

1. Saving faith _____ at the _____ (WCF 14.2) Jesus brings here.
2. The phrase ‘ _____ (v 12) refers the _____ judgment. Hell is _____!
3. The Evangelical Triangle in Galilee memorializes the _____ Jesus faced.

II. Take to your heart the commands to _____, and _____, and _____. (v 2b-9)

1. The task of _____ runs on the fuel of _____.
2. Investigate the many _____ of _____:
3. Dedicate your life and _____ to speaking of the _____.

III. Teach _____ as a representative of Jesus. (v 1-2a, 16; 2 Cor. 5:20-21)

1. Follow the _____ of Jesus.
2. _____ and _____ servants of Jesus.
3. Understand the _____ duty we have as _____.
4. Live in the _____ of _____.