Psalm 69:31-36	Tune: Farningham, #60
Psalm 132:13-18	Tune: Martyrdom, #85

"Consider that if you have weak grace and bring forth but little fruit, you are like to have so much the less comfort. Grace is of a joyful nature; 'tis not only the beauty but the happiness of the soul. 'Tis the only true spring of comfort, and only the mere exercise of grace naturally excites sweetness and pleasure in the mind. 'Tis the health of the mind.... They that have much grace will be likely to have much communion with God, and so consequently will have much joy."

By: Jonathan Edwards (18th century American Reformed Theologian)

Catechism Class
Sunday Fellowship Lunch
Sunday Afternoon Worship 1:30 PM

We encourage everyone to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
