

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Lord's Day, February 14, 2016

I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever; With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations. ... God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, And to be held in reverence by all those around Him. (Psalm 89:1,7)

*(Moment of Silent Meditation)

Sermon: Psalm 119:81-88

In the depths of affliction the believer sighs, "How long?"

We see:

1. The depths of affliction.
2. These afflictions are given even as I am hoping and trusting in God's Word.
3. And so I cry, "how long?"

The Westminster Confession of Faith

WCF 20.1 The liberty which Christ hath purchased for believers under the Gospel, consists in their freedom from the guilt of sin, the condemning wrath of God, the curse of the moral law;(1) and, in their being delivered from this present evil world, bondage to Satan and dominion of sin;(2) from the evil of afflictions, the sting of death, the victory of the grave, and everlasting damnation;(3) as also, in their free access to God,(4) and their yielding obedience unto Him, not out of slavish fear, but a child-like love and willing mind.(5) All which were common also to believers under the law;(6) but, under the new testament, the liberty of Christians is further enlarged in their freedom from the yoke of the ceremonial law, to which the Jewish Church was subjected,(7) and in greater boldness of access to the throne of grace,(8) and in fuller communications of the free Spirit of God, than believers under the law did ordinarily partake of.(9)

LORD'S SUPPER CELEBRATION

May we come to the Lord's Table remembering His death and thus be assured that He will nourish and refresh us with His crucified body and shed blood to everlasting life. He promises this in the institution of this supper, saying of the bread, this is My body; and of the wine, this is My blood of the new covenant which is shed for many for the remission of sins (Matthew 26:26ff). With these words our Lord directs our faith to His perfect sacrifice, and assures us that He, by His death, has taken away our sin and has obtained for us the life-giving Spirit. By this Spirit He brings us into true communion with Himself and with one another, and makes us partakers of all His riches, of eternal life, of righteousness and glory.

Let us firmly believe all His promises, not doubting that we shall be nourished and refreshed with His body and blood through the working of the Holy Spirit as surely as we receive the bread and wine in remembrance of Him.

Visitors, who are members in good standing of a Bible-believing church, are encouraged to join us and to talk to the Session so that we may welcome you.

Questions for discussion

[Sermon: Psalm 119: 81-88]

1. What is the meaning of my soul faints for Your salvation?
2. What does a wineskin in smoke speak about?
3. How are the proud an affliction to a believer?
4. Apply Lamentations 3:22 to text/verse 87.
5. Which is biblical? (a) I have afflictions because I stop hoping and trusting in God's Word, or (b) I have afflictions as I am trusting and hoping in God's Word.
6. What is the very important lesson(s) for us in the "how long"?
7. How does the Lord's Supper remind us of our waiting (how long?)?
8. How ought we best be a help to brothers/sisters experiencing afflictions?
