

ISAIAH

If Man Is Faithless, God Remains Faithful Isaiah 30:1-33

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 21, 2016

1. The characteristics of those who turn from the Lord and instead put their hope in the wisdom and strength of _____.

- a. They rebel against God by making _____ that are contrary to His Word.
- b. They experience the _____ and humiliation that comes from depending on man instead of God.
- c. They try to maintain the appearance of a religious life but will only hear _____ words that nullify God's holiness.
- d. They are not _____ to repent from their sin and trust in the Lord even though that is where their real hope lies.

2. God's judgment is a prelude to the gracious _____ He will pour out on His people through the Messiah. 18-26

- a. God will grant His people a _____ spirit.
- b. God will enable His people to _____ from idolatry no matter how costly it may be to them.
- c. God will bring about a remarkably _____ transformation in society through Christ.

3. God will take vengeance on His enemies and His people will _____ in the Lord's work.

"God's people have been redeemed and they will sing His praises and rejoice at the fulfillment of His purposes. They will exult when the _____ ones are punished, just as we, in praying 'Thy kingdom come', are beseeching God for the destruction of all that would prevent the coming of God's kingdom." - E.J. Young