

C.A.R.E. Group Questions    2/23/20

1. Why are events like the Red Sea miracle and the Jordan River crossing important for us to remember? What do they still teach us about God?
2. We often acknowledge the effects of sin in man, but we don't often talk about the effects of sin on creation. How does this inform our understanding of sin, and how does it point to the ultimate redemption of all things in the future?
3. How are belief and worship connected as we sing, pray, and study the word of God?
4. We marvel at the miracles of the Exodus, and yet, if we are in Christ, we will experience an exodus that dwarfs the first. Do you struggle in patiently waiting for this blessed event? How do we combat that impatience and the presence of doubt?
5. What are some practical ways in which you balance being eternally focused on the promises of God while at the same time fulfilling your earthly responsibilities day-by-day?
