

Challenging Roman Governors with the Truth

Acts 23:12 - 25:22

Following the story

21:17 Paul returned to Jerusalem

Following the story

21:17 Paul returned to Jerusalem

21:27-40 Jews from Asia falsely accused Paul and incited a mob

Following the story

21:17 Paul returned to Jerusalem

21:27-40 Jews from Asia falsely accused Paul and incited a mob that tried to kill him outside the temple

22:1-21 Paul spoke to the crowds, protected by the soldiers on the fortress stairs

Following the story

21:17 Paul returned to Jerusalem

21:27-40 Jews from Asia falsely accused Paul and incited a mob that tried to kill him outside the temple

22:1-21 Paul spoke to the crowds, protected by the soldiers on the fortress stairs

22:22-29 The Roman tribune intended to flog Paul to find out what was going on, but he revealed his citizenship

Following the story

21:17 Paul returned to Jerusalem

21:27-40 Jews from Asia falsely accused Paul and incited a mob that tried to kill him outside the temple

22:1-21 Paul spoke to the crowds, protected by the soldiers on the fortress stairs

22:22-29 The Roman tribune intended to flog Paul to find out what was going on, but he revealed his citizenship

22:30-23:10 The tribune ordered the Jewish leadership to meet to explain what was going on, but they ended up in a fight among themselves because Paul talked about resurrection

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

23:12-24:1 A plot to kill Paul was uncovered, so soldiers escorted him to the Roman governor Felix in Caesarea

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

23:12-24:1 A plot to kill Paul was uncovered, so soldiers escorted him to the Roman governor Felix in Caesarea

24:1-21 Paul and the Jews presented their case before Felix

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

23:12-24:1 A plot to kill Paul was uncovered, so soldiers escorted him to the Roman governor Felix in Caesarea

24:1-21 Paul and the Jews presented their case before Felix

24:22-26 Felix stalled, yet he and his Jewish wife frequently conversed with Paul

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

23:12-24:1 A plot to kill Paul was uncovered, so soldiers escorted him to the Roman governor Felix in Caesarea

24:1-21 Paul and the Jews presented their case before Felix

24:22-26 Felix stalled, yet he and his Jewish wife frequently conversed with Paul

24:27-25:12 The new Roman governor Festus suggested that Paul accept a hearing in Jerusalem, but Paul appealed to Caesar

Following the story

23:11 “Take courage ... you must testify also in Rome”

23:12-24:1 A plot to kill Paul was uncovered, so soldiers escorted him to the Roman governor Felix in Caesarea

24:1-21 Paul and the Jews presented their case before Felix

24:22-26 Felix stalled, yet he and his Jewish wife frequently conversed with Paul

24:27-25:12 The new Roman governor Festus suggested that Paul accept a hearing in Jerusalem, but Paul appealed to Caesar

25:13-22 The Roman king Agrippa and his wife Bernice visited, and Festus wanted them to hear Paul’s case

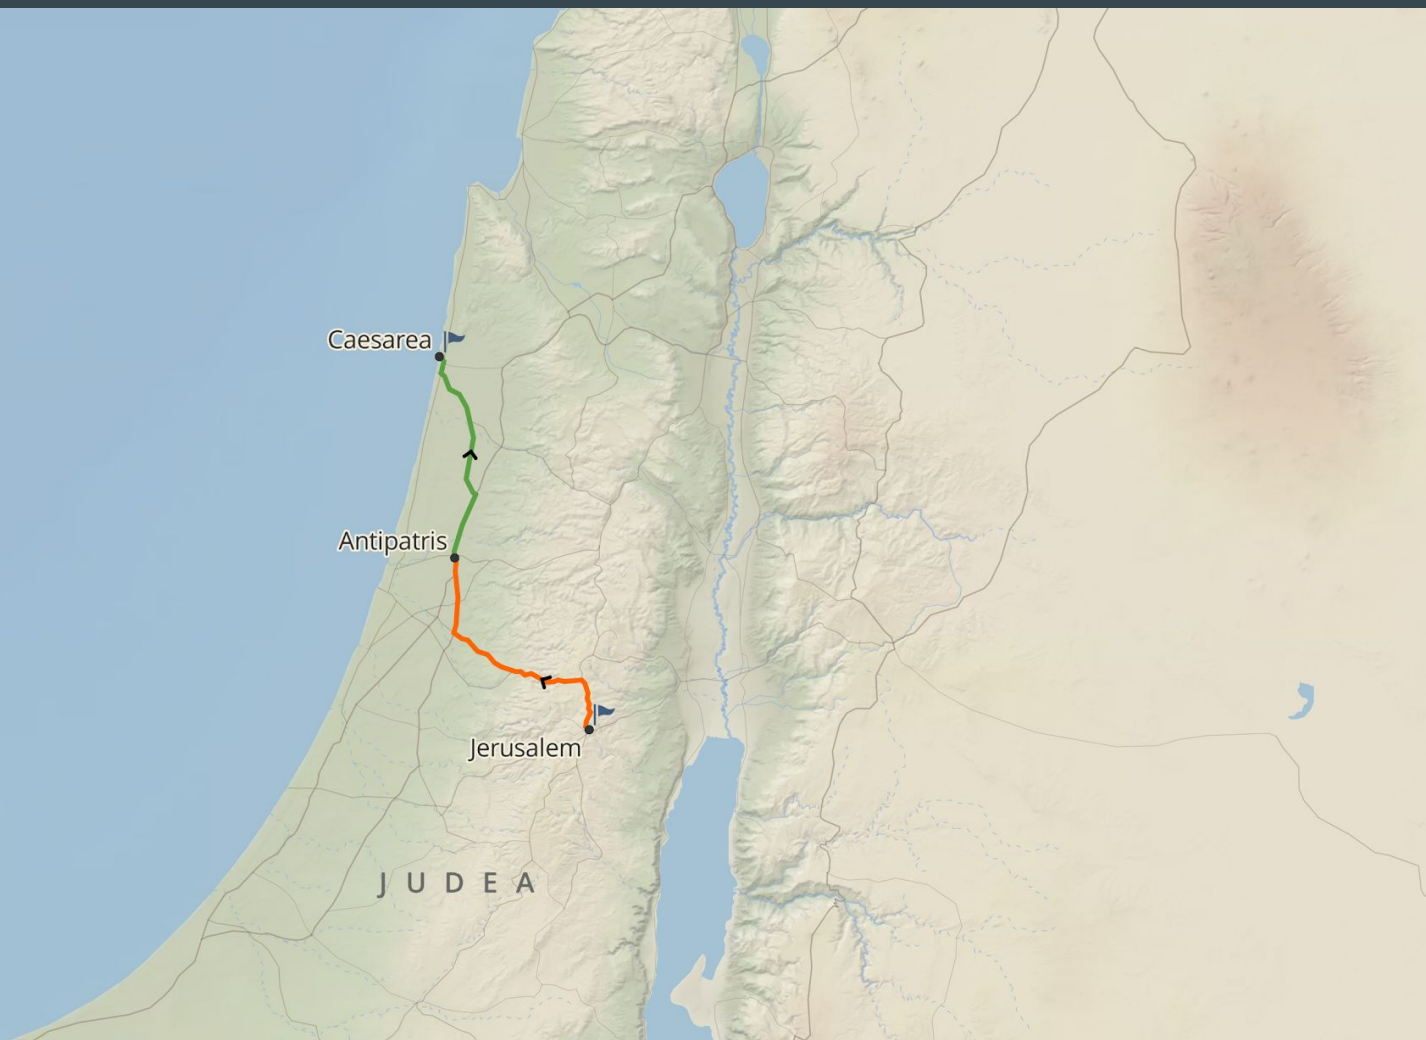

The Places

Caesarea

Antipatris

Jerusalem

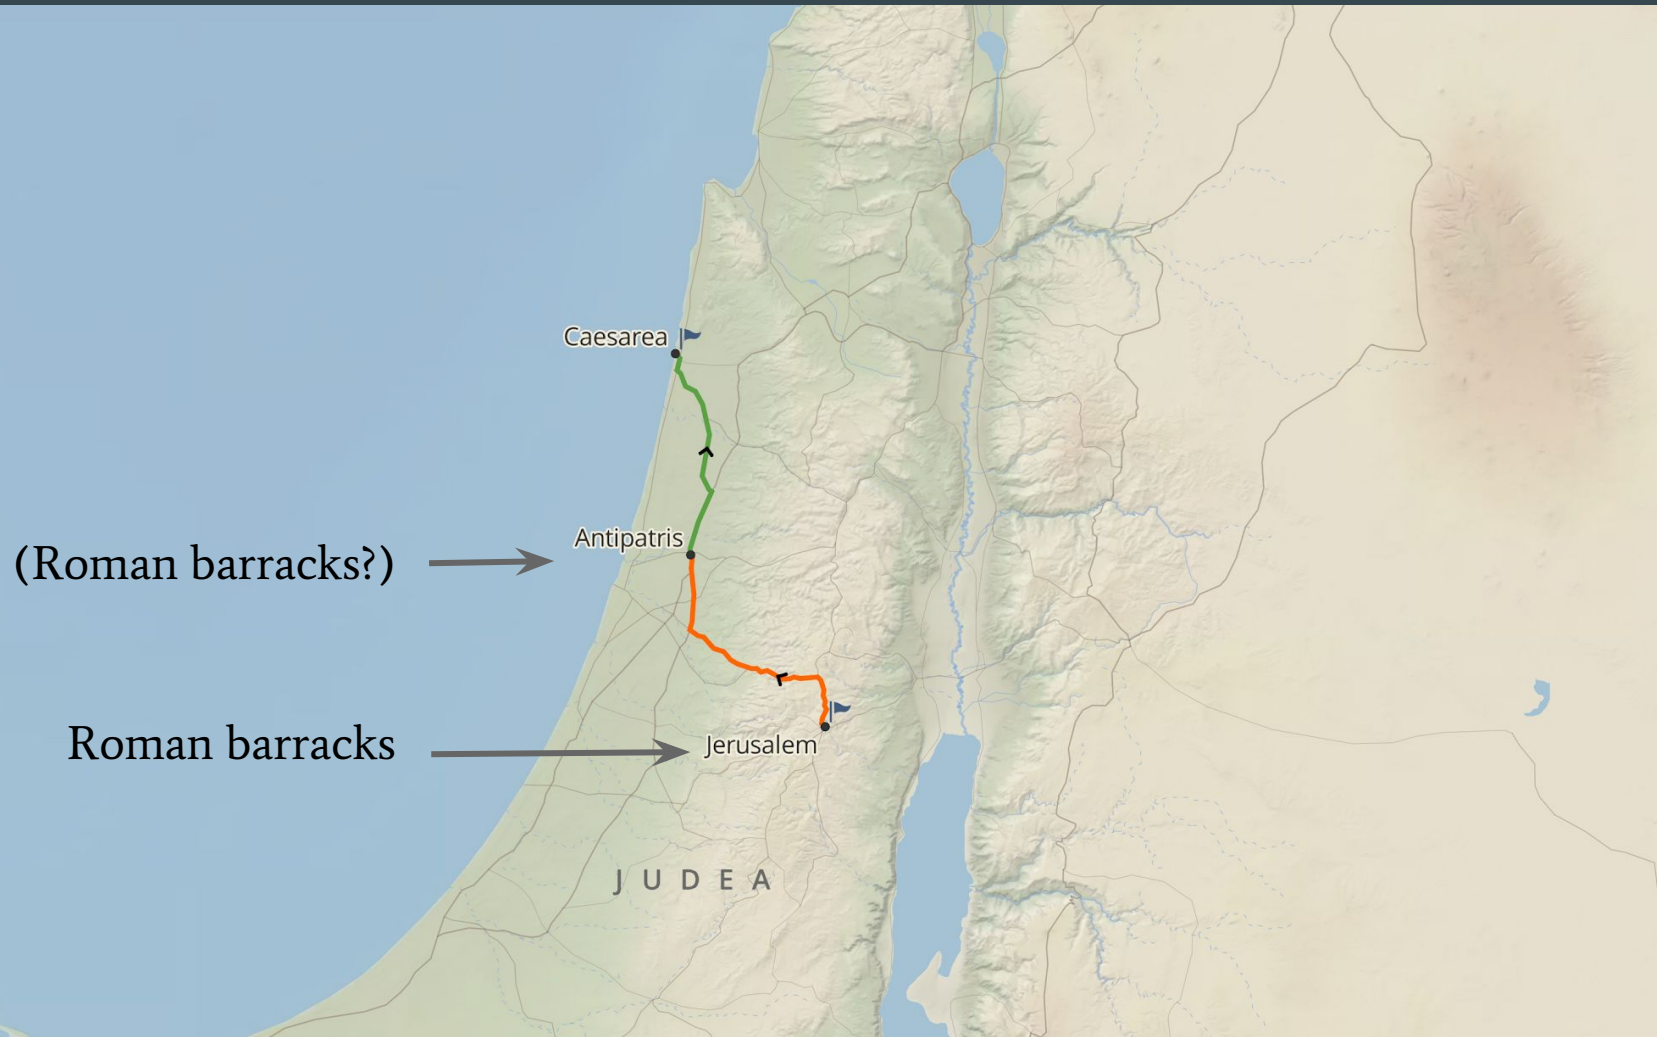

J U D E A

The Places

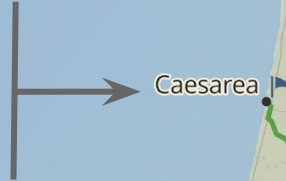

The Places

The Places

Herod's Praetorium

Caesarea

(Roman barracks?)

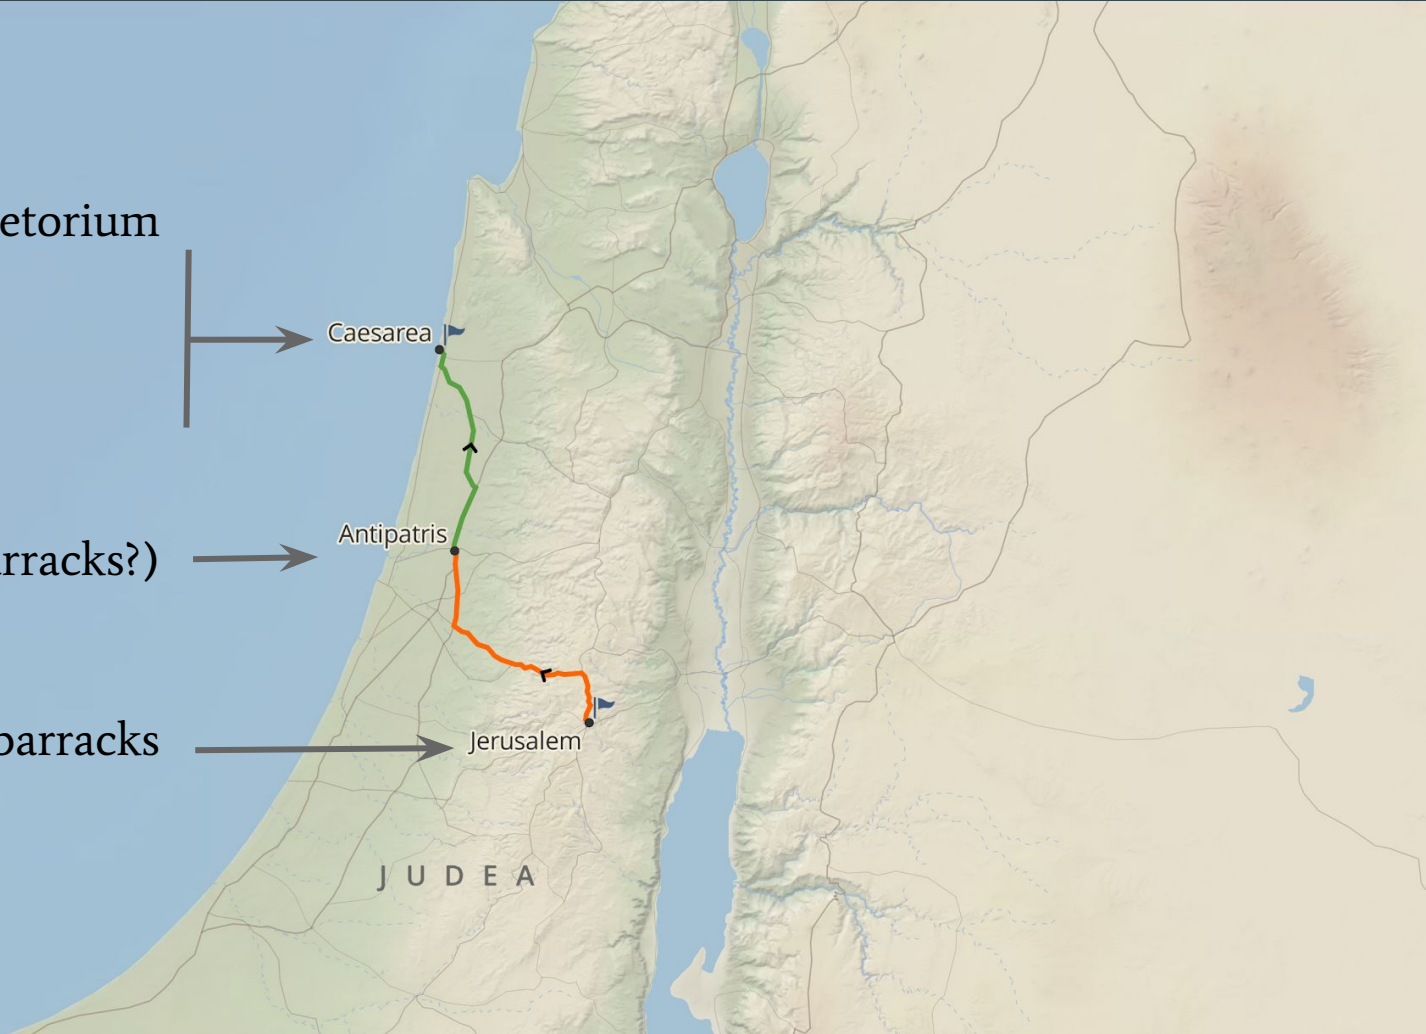

Antipatris

Roman barracks

Jerusalem

J U D E A

The Places

Herod's Praetorium

Prison

(Roman barracks?)

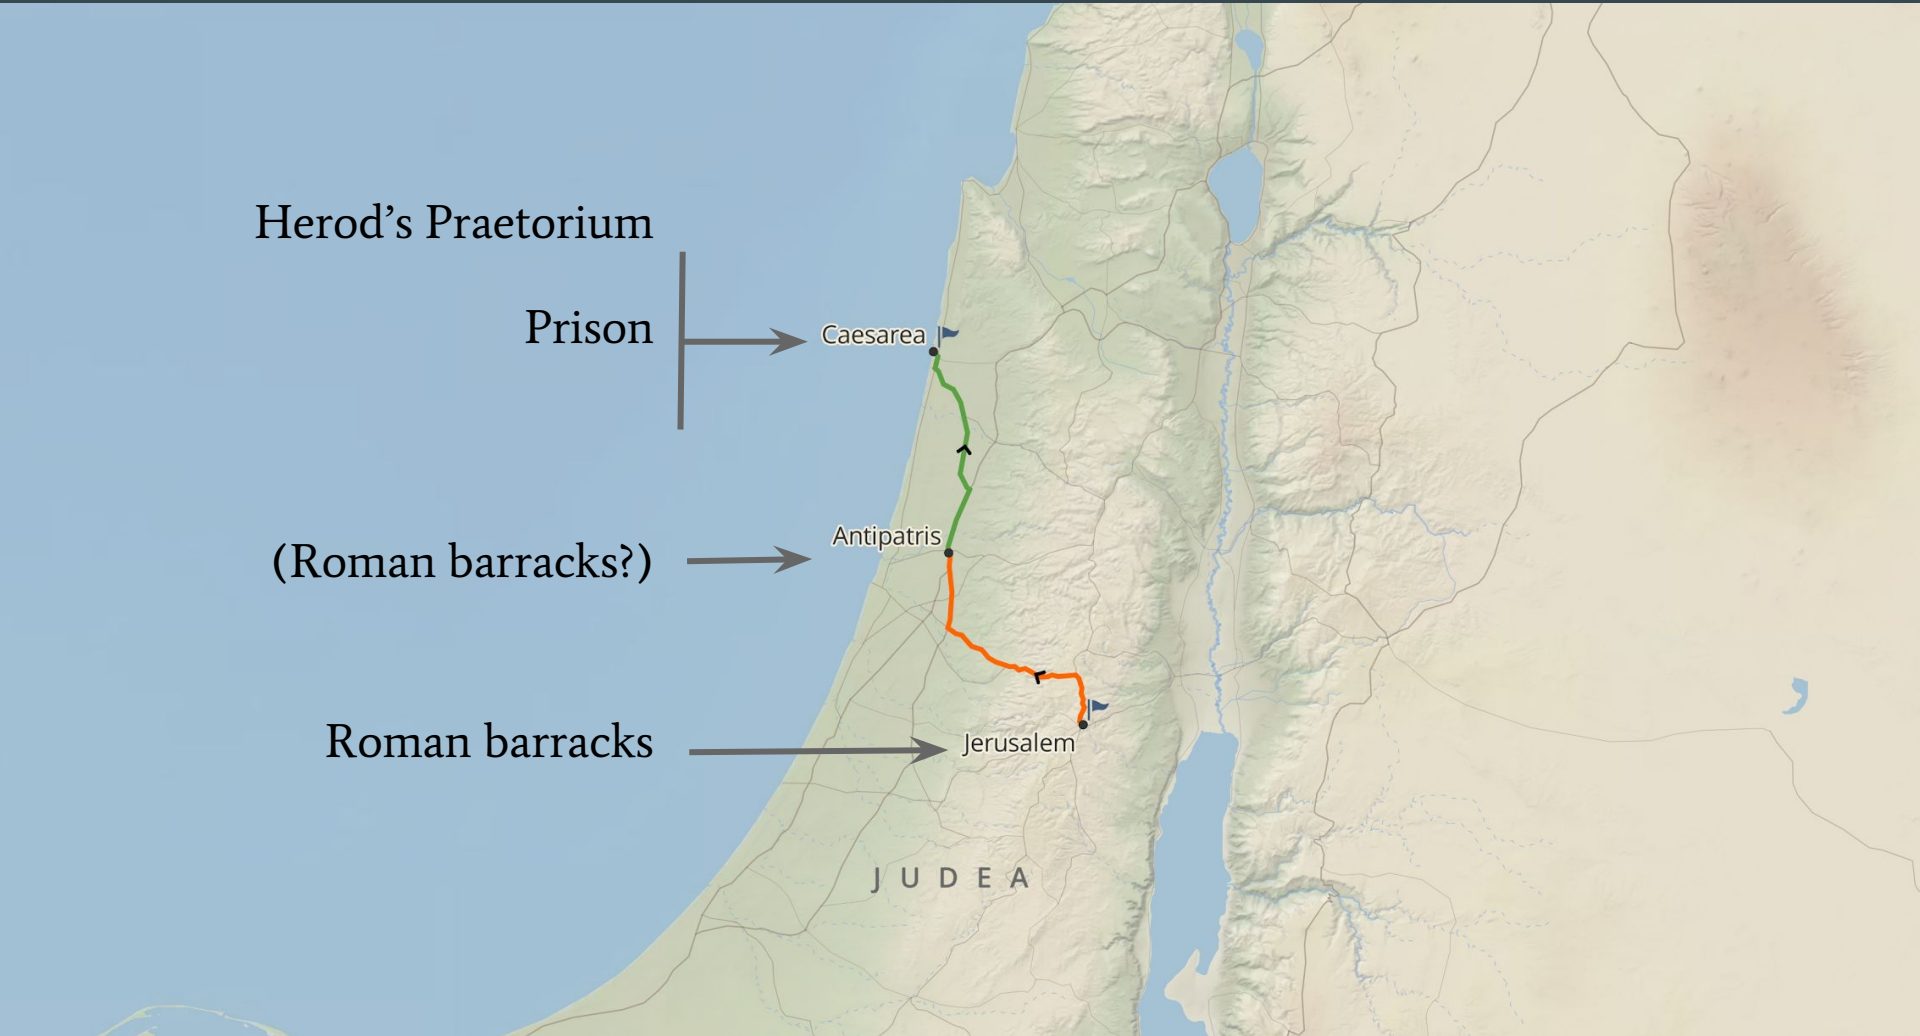

Roman barracks

Caesarea

Antipatris

Jerusalem

J U D E A

The Places

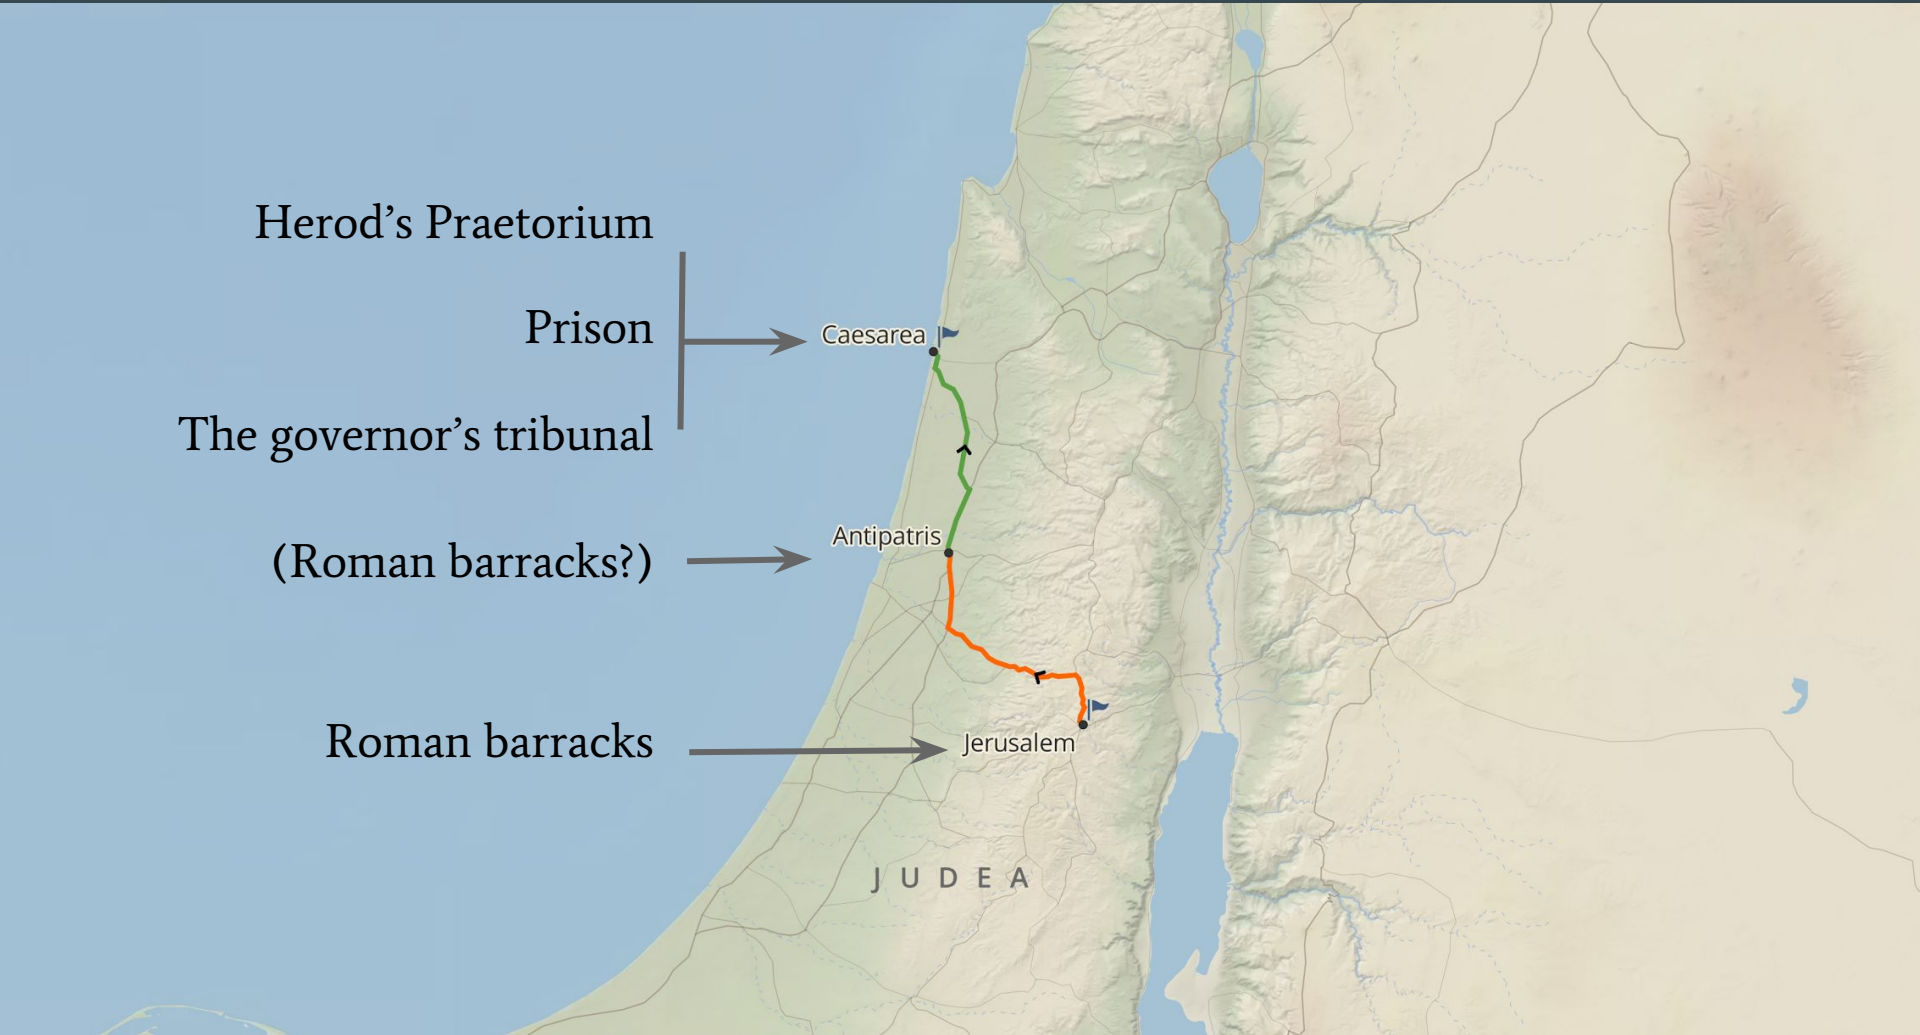

- Herod's Praetorium
- Prison
- The governor's tribunal
- (Roman barracks?)
- Roman barracks

Caesarea

Antipatris

Jerusalem

J U D E A

The Timing

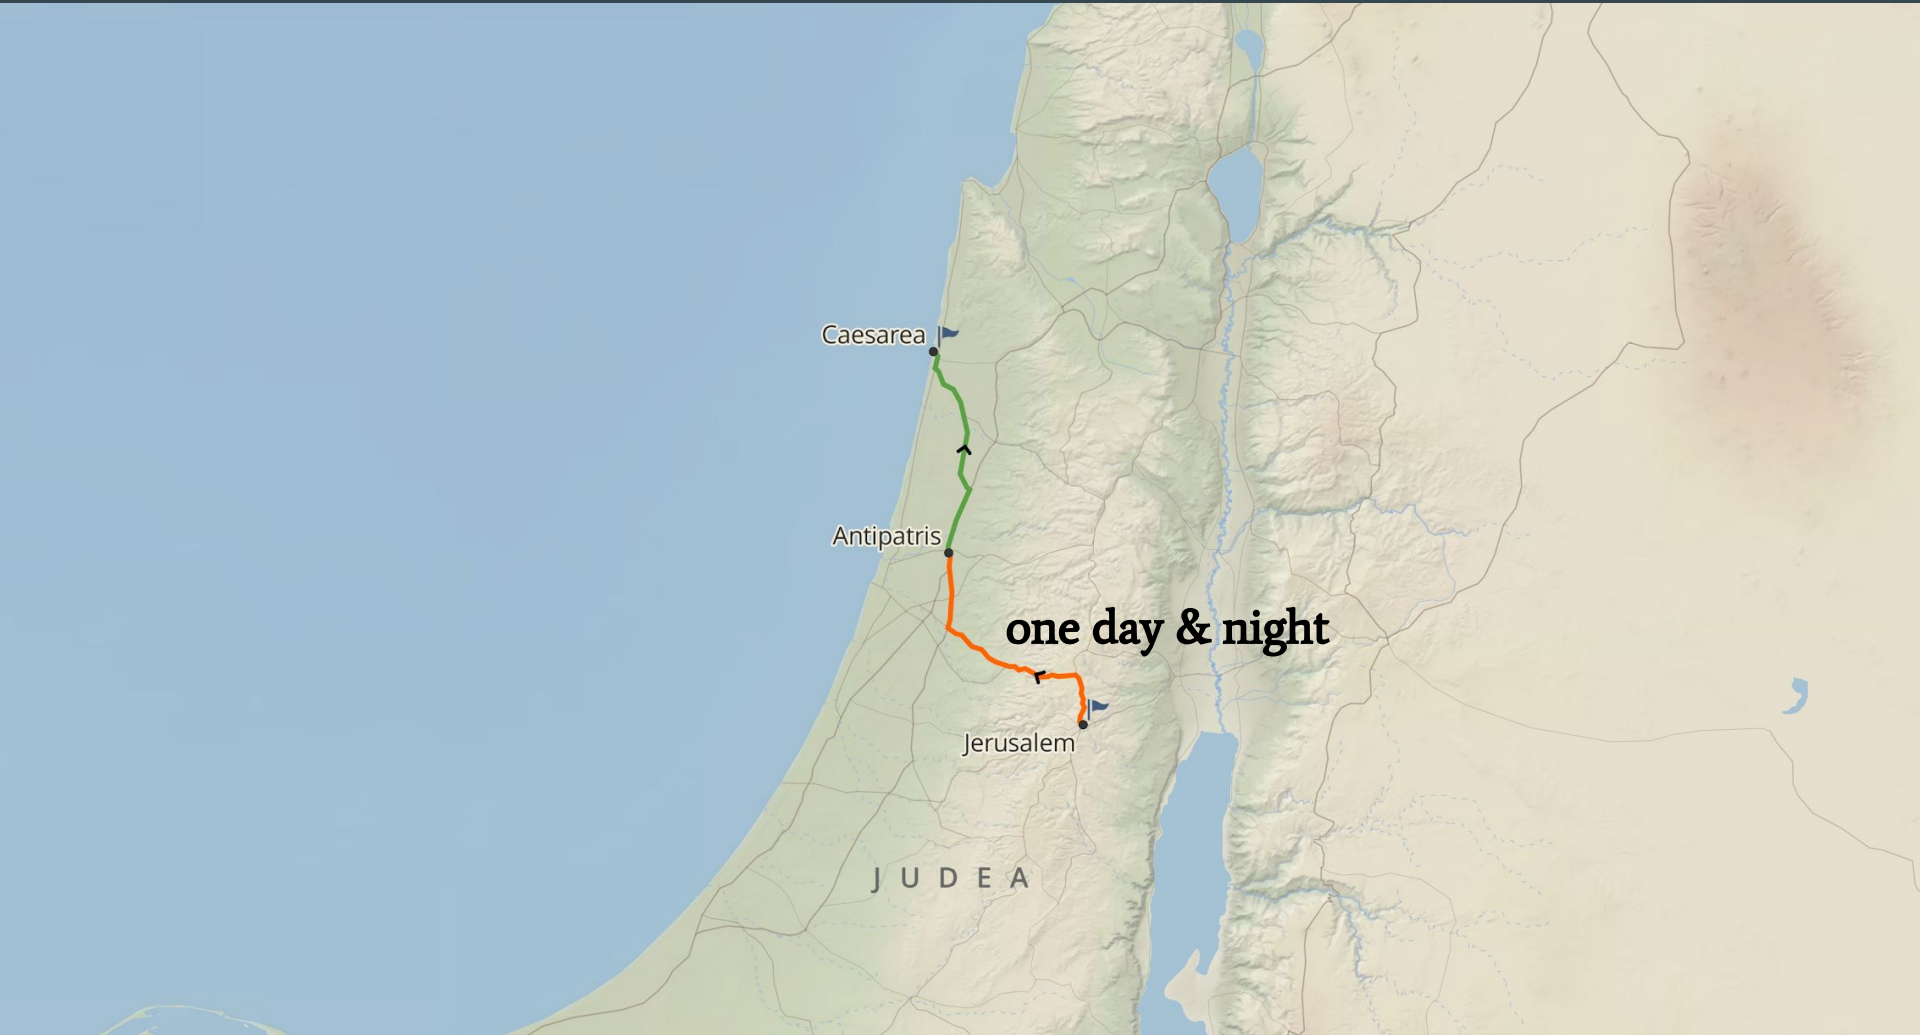

Caesarea

Antipatris

Jerusalem

J U D E A

one day & night

The Timing

Caesarea

one day

Antipatris

one day & night

Jerusalem

J U D E A

The Timing

Caesarea more than two years

one day

Antipatris

one day & night

Jerusalem

J U D E A

The Key People

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

23:26 Felix (the Roman governor)

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

23:26 Felix (the Roman governor)

24:1 Ananias (the high priest)

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

23:26 Felix (the Roman governor)

24:1 Ananias (the high priest)

24:1 Tertullus (a lawyer)

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

23:26 Felix (the Roman governor)

24:1 Ananias (the high priest)

24:1 Tertullus (a lawyer)

24:24 Drusilla (wife of Felix)

The Key People

23:12 “the Jews”

23:16 Paul’s sister’s son

23:17 Claudius Lysias (the Roman tribune)

23:26 Felix (the Roman governor)

24:1 Ananias (the high priest)

24:1 Tertullus (a lawyer)

24:24 Drusilla (wife of Felix)

24:27 Porcius Festus (the next Roman governor)

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

Drusilla

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

Drusilla

Felix's alarm

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

Drusilla

Felix's alarm

Two years of testimony

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

Drusilla

Felix's alarm

Two years of testimony

Caesar

The Key Ideas

Paul's innocence

Nazarenes

“I am a Christian Jew”

Felix and the Way

Drusilla

Felix's alarm

Two years of testimony

Caesar

The successful resurrection witness

