

LAW & GOSPEL

8th Commandment: Theft & Stewardship Exodus 20:15

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 17, 2019

1. The 8th Commandment forbids _____ of all kinds.

- a. The _____ of another person must not be taken in outright theft, piracy, or plagiarism.
- b. A _____ must not be kidnaped or forced into servitude.
- c. _____ dealings with others such as cheating, false measurements, or excessive interest is forbidden.
- d. Manipulating others to _____ them into giving their allegiance or their property is forbidden.

2. The _____ causes of theft.

- a. A _____ heart that wants more and more.
- b. A heart that does not _____ God to provide.
- c. A heart that is not _____ with what God has already provided.
- d. A heart that is _____ of what others have.

3. The 8th Commandment requires that one be a good _____.

- a. God owns all things but He has given man the right to _____ property and care for it well.

"In what does real power consist? The answer is short and plain—in property." Noah Webster 1787

- b. God calls man to _____ as he is able to do so.
- c. God calls man to _____ the good things He has provided.
- d. God calls man to be regular in his _____ to the Lord and to others.