

The Richness of Reconciliation

Colossians 1:21-23

- _____ describes the sinner who once stood guilty and condemned, but is now declared righteous (Rom. 8:33).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a slave, but has now been granted freedom (Rom. 6:18-22).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a debtor, but whose debt has now been paid in full (Eph. 1:7).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a stranger, but is now made a son (Eph. 1:5).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once God's enemy, but has now become His friend (Rom. 5:10).

- I. Our Previous State: _____ because of _____ (1:21)
- II. Our Present Condition: _____ because of _____ (1:20b, 22a)
- III. Our Future Presentation: _____ before _____ (1:22b)
- IV. Our Present Responsibility: _____ in the _____ (1:23)

The Richness of Reconciliation

Colossians 1:21-23

- _____ describes the sinner who once stood guilty and condemned, but is now declared righteous (Rom. 8:33).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a slave, but has now been granted freedom (Rom. 6:18-22).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a debtor, but whose debt has now been paid in full (Eph. 1:7).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once a stranger, but is now made a son (Eph. 1:5).
- _____ describes the sinner who was once God's enemy, but has now become His friend (Rom. 5:10).

- I. Our Previous State: _____ because of _____ (1:21)
- II. Our Present Condition: _____ because of _____ (1:20b, 22a)
- III. Our Future Presentation: _____ before _____ (1:22b)
- IV. Our Present Responsibility: _____ in the _____ (1:23)