

“You Are Our Glory And Joy”
1 Thessalonians 2:17-3:6

Introduction:

Proposition: The Apostle Paul was not a stranger to being misunderstood by others. How did he handle it? Didn't his response include the opening of his heart to those who were struggling to understand as well as trusting others to get involved and assist him?

I. It is important to be aware of who is involved

II. What is the ultimate purpose of any relationship?

III. Can you trust another to do what only you can do?

Conclusion:
