Bottom Line:

Living a Christ-centered life involves being alert to the needs and failings of others. Looking out for one another in this way is a powerful demonstration of the reality of Christ's love in our lives!

1. Our duty as we live for Christ is to _____ for others. Romans 15:1-2

A. It comes from living a _____ life.
Romans 15:1; Luke 9:23; Galatians 2:20

B. It comes from living a _____ life.
Romans 15:2; Ephesians 4:11-12

2. Our _____ as we look out for others is found in Christ. Romans 15:3-4;
Hebrews 12:1-2

A. Simply but powerfully stated, we are to be _____
_____. Romans 15:3

“Life is wasted if we do not grasp the glory of the cross, cherish it for the treasure that it is, and cleave to it as the highest price of every pleasure and the deepest comfort in every pain. What was once foolishness to us—a crucified God—must become our wisdom and our power and our only boast in this world.” –John Piper

B. Simply but essentially stated, we are to follow
_____. Romans 15:4

3. Our _____ as we look out for others is transformation. Romans 15:5-7; Hebrews 10:24-25

A. Transforming _____ - “can’t be divided”
Romans 15:5

B. Transforming _____ - “can’t be silenced”
Romans 15:6

C. Transforming _____ - “can’t be denied”
Romans 15:7
