

ZECHARIAH
The Lord's Horsemen
Zechariah 1:8-17

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 2, 2020

1. The Lord encourages His people by making it clear that He is _____ and sovereignly involved in the affairs of men all over the world.

- a. What God is doing in the world at large and even among His people, often seems _____ from man's perspective.
- b. Believers can rest in the fact that the Lord who _____ over all is all-knowing, all-powerful, and everywhere present.

2. The Lord encourages His people through the _____ that constantly serve Him.

- a. The angels are _____ spirits who are sent out by the Lord to serve those who will inherit salvation.
- b. The angels serve the Lord by executing His judgments on His _____ at His direction.

3. The Lord encourages His people through the _____ of the angel of the Lord on their behalf.

- a. Those who are the enemies of God often seem to be at peace and _____.
- b. In contrast, the people of God, are often _____ and cast down, but the angel of the Lord speaks to God on their behalf.

"The hour of darkest desolations to the Church, and of haughtiest triumph to her enemies, is often the very hour when God begins His work of judgment on the one, and returning mercy on the other." - T.V. Moore

- c. The Lord of hosts graciously responds to the angel of the Lord's intercession, and emphatically proclaims His great _____ for and commitment to His people.