

Daniel Spoke of Peter's Days

Daniel 2

Intro.

- “Yea, and _____ the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of _____” (Acts 3:24). These were the days of _____.
- ✓ The fulfillment of this prophecy determines the rest of history, including our own.
- Daniel spoke of Peter's generation.

Background

Daniel contains at least _____ visions that reach to Peter's generation.

The first two speak of four successive _____ reaching to Peter.

Dan. 2:1–13. In many ways, this is a battle between God and the false gods of _____.

The dream (Dan. 2:31–35)

The image

Its head was _____, chest and arms were _____, thighs were _____, legs were of _____, and its feet were part _____, and part _____.

Observation: the metals were decreasing in _____, but increasing in _____.

Note: God designed this image as a revelation to the king of what would happen “in the _____ days” (Dan. 2:28).

The stone

A stone smote the image on its _____ (Dan. 2:34).

This was an unusual stone; it was “cut out without _____.” Who cut it out?

This resulted in the iron-clay, brass, silver, and gold being _____ to _____.

The stone became a great _____ and filled the _____.

Daniel Spoke of Peter's Days

Daniel 2

The interpretation (Dan. 2: 36–45)

The image (Dan. 2:36–43)

The golden head represented the kingdom of _____.

Kingdom	Dan. 2	Dan. 7	History
1	Gold (Dan. 2:32, 37–38)	Lion (Dan. 7:4)	Babylon
2	Silver (Dan. 2:32, 39a)	Bear (Dan. 7:5)	_____ - _____
3	Brass (Dan. 2:32, 39b)	Leopard (Dan. 7:6)	_____
4	Iron-clay (Dan. 2:33, 40–43)	? (Dan. 7:7–14, 19–28)	_____

Daniel's "latter days" occur during the _____ Empire. These are Peter's "these days."

The stone (Dan. 2:44–45)

"In the days of these kings" (Da 2:44) — the days of the kings of the fourth empire. This empire began when _____ initiated a civil war.

"shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom" (Da 2:44) — Our Lord Jesus Christ was born during the reign of the second Caesar, _____. The Lord's first message was "Repent: for the _____ of heaven is at hand" (Mt 4:17).

"but it shall break in pieces and consume all these _____, and it shall stand for ever" (Da 2:44).

Conclusion

The kingdom has reached us, today!

The last enemy Jesus will destroy is _____ (1Co. 15:21).