Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

That in all things He might have the preeminence

A congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)

I will extol thee, my God, O king;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall praise thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.

Psalm 145:1-4

Our motivation for godly living is that we were dead in our sins but He saved us by His grace to live for His glory

- I. Remember what we once were
- II. Remember what God has done

Confession of Faith III. Of God's Eternal Decree

V. Those of mankind that are predestinated unto life, God, before the foundation of the world was laid, according to his eternal and immutable purpose, and the secret counsel and good pleasure of his will, hath chosen in Christ unto everlasting glory, out of his mere free grace and love, without any foresight of faith or good works, or perseverance in either of them, or any other thing in the creature, as conditions, or causes moving him thereunto; and all to the praise of his glorious grace.

* - Please stand if able

The church must grow in holiness pursuing the final goal of knowing Christ and being conformed to Him

- I. The pursuit of the final goal involves a holy recognition.
- II. The pursuit of the final goal involves a holy effort.
- III. The pursuit of the final goal involves a holy discipline.
- IV. The pursuit of the final goal involves a holy encouragement.

Confession of Faith XVII. Of the Perseverance of the Saints

I. They whom God hath accepted in his Beloved, effectually called and sanctified by his Spirit, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace; but shall certainly persevere therein to the end, and be eternally saved.

II. This perseverance of the saints depends not upon their own free will, but upon the immutability of the decree of election, flowing from the free and unchangeable love of God the Father; upon the efficacy of the merit and intercession of Jesus Christ; the abiding of the Spirit, and of the seed of God within them; and the nature of the covenant of grace: from all which ariseth also the certainty and infallibility thereof.
