

The Weeping Women
Luke 23:26–31

- I. Christ's suffering attracts casual attention (26–27)
 - A. Some observers are circumstantial (26)

 - B. Some observers are curious (27a)

 - C. Some observers are sympathetic (27b)

- II. Christ's suffering corrects human perception (28–29)
 - A. Pity for Jesus is misdirected (28)

 - B. Safety for people is unfounded (29)

- III. Christ's suffering portrays future judgment (30–31)
 - A. The penalty for sin will be unbearable (30)

 - B. The penalty for sin will be inevitable (31)