Going to God in Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

“The War for Contentment”

March 5, 2023

In setting forth the life built on the foundation of Christ’s saving work, the author turns from interpersonal love to personal responsibility.

The key to such growth is contentment in what a loving and wise God has for you at the present time.

Seeking contentment in our broken and sinful world is like fighting a war—shout out praises to the Lord that in this battle he will never leave you nor forsake you for he is your helper!

God’s grace touches your inward desires as well as your outward actions.

God’s commands and judgments reveal how serious he is about things that our world treats lightly.

In attitude and action, preserve and guard committed marriage between a husband and wife as the only rightful place for sexual activity.

Honestly be on the lookout for the love of money in your way of life, especially as that makes you vulnerable to the impact of persecution.

Hebrews 13:4-6 (NASB 2020)

⁴Marriage is to be held in honor among all, and the marriage bed is to be undefiled; for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said “I will never desert you, nor will I ever abandon you,” ⁶so that we confidently say “The Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid. What will man do to me?”
