1. It is the great privilege and calling of believers to _____ in the Lord.
2. It is the responsibility of believers to regularly be on guard concerning their salvation and take the _____ of Scripture seriously.
 - a. The warnings of Scripture are one of the _____ the Lord uses to enable believers to persevere in their faith.
 - b. Beware of those who claim that participation in certain _____ activities is salvation.
 - c. Beware of those who claim that a person is saved by their _____ behavior.

“Unhappy people! who, after so much time and trouble lost in these visionary schemes, reap no other fruit than their own damnation, and the utter confusion of those who were carried away by their impostures.”

- Jean Daille

3. It is the responsibility of believers to be clear about the _____ and walk out their salvation.
 - a. It is by the gospel that the Lord brings about _____ transformation and thereby brings believers into His covenant family.
 - b. All believers will _____ and serve the one true God by the Spirit of God.
 - c. All believers will boast in Jesus Christ _____ as the One who saves them.
 - d. All believers recognize that they have no reason to take any _____ at all for the salvation God has graciously given them in Christ.

“Such who have a true sense of themselves, and a spiritual sight of Christ, will _____ glory in themselves, in their wisdom, strength, riches, or righteousness, but in Christ, in His wisdom and strength, in His riches and righteousness, and in His person and grace only.” - John Gill
