Christ frees us
from legalistic
living to be generous in our giving

Meeting one another's material needs is our duty before God

A close-up photograph of two hands, palms up, holding a small amount of dark brown, round seeds. The hands are positioned in the center of the frame, with the fingers slightly curled. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue-grey color. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Our generosity follows
the sowing and
reaping principle

Distributing [sharing] to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality

Romans 12:13

You Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only

Philippians 4:15

I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my good [things]

Luke 12:18

Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things

Luke 16:25

A close-up photograph of a person's hand carefully placing a small green seedling into one of the compartments of a black plastic seedling tray. The tray is filled with dark brown soil, and several other compartments contain similar young plants. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the hand and the seedling. In the top left corner, there is a small orange horizontal bar.

When we give, we reap what we sow

He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully

2 Corinthians 9:6

A top-down photograph of a strawberry field. A person's hand is visible at the top, holding a single ripe red strawberry. Below the hand are three light blue plastic baskets, each filled with several ripe strawberries. The ground is covered with dry straw mulch, and green strawberry plants with small red and white berries are visible on the right side. The text "When we give, we reap after we sow" is overlaid on the left side of the image.

When we give, we reap after we sow

Paul teaches two ways
to give generously before God

A photograph of a church interior. In the foreground, a red velvet offering basket is partially visible, attached to a black and gold handle. The background shows rows of white pews with wooden tops, extending towards a doorway. A large world map is mounted on the wall to the right. The lighting is soft and even.
