Job 9:1-10:22

1. Job's response to Bildad.

9:1-13 Job wonders how a mortal man can be _____ before God in view of God's absolute supremacy.

9:14-24 Job acknowledges that it is not possible for him to effectively plead his _____ before God.

9:25-35 Job speaks of his basic sin nature and knows that is a problem in God's courtroom, so he really needs an _____ between he and God.

10:1-7 In despair, Job peppers God with questions on why He treats Job as if he were a _____ man.

10:8-17 Job reminds God of how He created him and has cared for him, and then wonders why God would now _____ what He has made.

10:18-22 Job repeats his wish that he had _____ at birth and that God would just leave him alone in his final days.

2. Lessons to be learned from Job's response.

a. God is truly glorious and _____.

1) God is perfectly _____.

2) God is _____.

3) God's works are wonderful and beyond our _____.

4) God is _____.

5) God is accountable to _____.

6) God is the _____ and sustainer of life.

b. Job realized that in order for man to be able to make a request before God there must be a _____.

1) God is perfectly glorious whereas man is feeble and _____.

2) Jesus Christ, the Son of God, has been graciously given as the _____ between God and man.
