REOPENING DAYSPRING CHAPEL

The encouraging downward trajectory of COVID-19 hospitalizations over an 8 day period (see chart below) means that we may be implementing a Phase 1 opening of the chapel as early as next week, Sunday, May 31, unless we see a sudden spike over the next 6 days. An update will be sent out by email this Friday, May 29.

MASKS

We are grateful for all those who have been providing masks. We now have a number of reusable cloth masks available here at the chapel of various sizes for when we open. We also have a box of disposable masks. Our sister Barbara Harrell is taking requests; if you are in need of a reusable hand-sewn cloth mask, let Barbara know by text or by email.

REFLECTIONS FROM A PASTOR'S HEART

This week, since many have turned their attention to apocalyptic questions in light of our present circumstances, I plan to answer the following questions from the Bible:

Monday - Who is the antichrist?

Tuesday - What is the mark of the beast?

Wednesday - When is the binding of Satan?

Thursday - What is the book of Revelation all about?

Friday - What is the book of Daniel all about?
