Christ's Love Described and Defined

1. The love in the love chapter is not affirming to us but convicting to us. 1 Cor. 13:4-8
2. The love in the love chapter is not of human origin
1 Cor. 13:4-8
3. The love in the love chapter demands an emptying of ourselves. Ephesians 3:14-19
4. The love in the love chapter empowers us to fulfill our responsibility. Matt. 22:36-40, 1 John 4:7-12, 1 John 4:19
 - a. The Necessity of Love
1 Cor. 13:1-3

Gifts used without love . . .

1. To draw attention to ourselves (self-serving)
2. To draw attention away from Christ (self-love)
3. To be prayer-less in the use of gifts (self reliance)

Works and ministry without love . . .

1. Works and ministry without love is fruitless (flurry of activity)
2. Works and ministry without love is worthless (revelation of motive)
