Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of the sermon. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of the study. It is also helpful when you are able to discuss your answers with others.

1. Read 2 Timothy 1:10 and Philippians 1:21-23. Ponder these statements and explain how Christians ought to be distinctive in their understanding of life and death.
2. Read Psalms 39:4-6. How can a frequent reminder of your own mortality change this present life for the better? What negative effects would surface in your daily life if you never thought about the fleeting nature of your time here on earth?
3. Read Hebrews 2:14-17. What counsel could you give to a Christian who is regularly nervous or fearful of his or her death?
4. Read 1 Timothy 6:7; Luke 12:19-21 and Matthew 6:19-21. What practical impact should the truth of this weekend's sermon have on your relationship with material things?
5. Read 1 Corinthians 15:50-57. What aspects of this powerful section of Scripture is most needed in your heart and life right now and why?
