Responsive Reading

Leader: Which is the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment is, Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Leader: What is required in the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment requires the preserving the honor, and performing the duties, belonging to everyone in their several places and relations, as superiors, inferiors, or equals.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment forbids the neglecting of, or doing anything against, the honor and duty which belongs to everyone in their several places and relations. (Shorter Catechism 63-65)

Corporate Confession of Sin

Leader: Lord God and gracious Father, we confess that we have not given proper honor to those around us.

People: We confess we have been disobedient to our parents and those others you have put in authority over us.

All: We earnestly beg your forgiveness, Father, and that you would forgive these and all our sins.

Private Confession of Sin (silent)

Assurance of Pardon

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (2 Corinthians 5:21)
