1. Because of who believers are in Christ, they must concentrate their _____ on the revelation of Jesus Christ.

- a. Believers must remember their _____ privileges in Christ; they have been born again, have a certain inheritance, and a faith that is proven through trials.

- b. Because of these gospel privileges, believers must purposefully _____ their Hope on the fullness of grace they will receive at the revelation of Jesus Christ.
 - 1) Focusing on this Hope requires an intentional directing of the _____ and affections.

 - 2) Focusing on this Hope requires a _____ minded self-control instead of self-indulgence and fanaticism.

2. Because of who believers are in Christ, they must pursue _____ lives.

- a. All believers are _____ into the family of God and therefore enjoy great privileges as His children.

- b. As children of God, believers devote themselves to _____ their Father.

- c. In order to obey, believers must guard themselves from being _____ by the sinful desires of a non-Christian society.

- d. Believers have been _____ to salvation by Holy God.
 - 1) This requires a focus on living lives that are set apart from _____ and the world.

 - 2) The standard of holiness is _____ Himself.

 - 3) The call to holiness for God's people is a _____ emphasis in both the Old and New Testaments.
