
Is It Ever Okay to Lie?

Introduction:

I. The Bible never condones a lie

A. The case of midwives in Egypt (Exodus 1:15–21)

B. The case of Rahab in Jericho (Joshua 2:1–11)

II. The Bible always expects the truth

A. Telling a lie reflects the character of the devil (John 8:44)

B. Telling the truth reflects the power of the gospel (John 17:17)

Is It Ever Okay to Lie?

Introduction:

I. The Bible never condones a lie

A. The case of midwives in Egypt (Exodus 1:15–21)

B. The case of Rahab in Jericho (Joshua 2:1–11)

II. The Bible always expects the truth

A. Telling a lie reflects the character of the devil (John 8:44)

B. Telling the truth reflects the power of the gospel (John 17:17)