Quotes from Figures in American History

If the liberties of the American people are ever destroyed, they will fall by the hands of the clergy.

- Marquis de Lafayette

Not until I went into the churches of America and heard her pulpits flame with righteousness did I understand the secret of her genius and power. America is great because she is good, and if America ever ceases to be good, she will cease to be great.

- Alexis de Tocqueville

“The longer I live, the more I read, the more patiently I think, and the more anxiously I inquire, the less I seem to know...Do justly. Love mercy. Walk humbly. This is enough.”

– John Adams

“My concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right.”

– Abraham Lincoln

“Always vote for principle, though you may vote alone.”

– John Quincy Adams

“How can you expect to dwell with God forever, if you so neglect and forsake him here?”

“Lord, stamp eternity on my eyeballs.”

– Jonathan Edwards
