

“WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?” Acts 16:16-40

With God, the subject is still salvation.

1. God still loves a world possessed (v.16-24).
  - a. A certain woman was possessed by an evil spirit (v.16-18).
  - b. There were men possessed by greed (v.19-24).
    - i. Christianity had an economic impact in Philippi (v.19).
    - ii. Christianity had a cultural impact (v.19b-24).
  - c. There were gospel messengers possessed by God (v.18)
2. God still loves individual sinners (v.25-34)
  - a. Sometimes a suffering messenger carries the most powerful message. Your most powerful witness may be enabled by your greatest trial.
  - b. Praise in persecution shakes the heavens: God in heaven can shake the earth (v.26).

- c. The gospel message can save your soul and may save your life (v.27-28).
  - d. God makes divine appointments (v.29-34).
3. God still protects His servants (v.35-40).

Conclusion:

- Christian brother or sister, don't waste your pain!
- Dear friend, don't waste your opportunity to be saved. Jesus said you must be born again (Jn. 1.7)! Have you believed?
