Col 2.9-10 For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily;<sup>10</sup> and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

Now, having soared into the heavenly places with the writer look how practical life is to be. Notice how tangible their Christianity was to be.

1. Let there be love in the pews (v.1-6)
  - a. Love is hospitable (v.2)
  - b. Love is sympathetic (v.3)
  - c. Love is committed – [Heb 13.4; 1 Co 6:18; Eph 5:5 -7]
  - d. Love is content (v.5-6)
2. Let there be leadership in the pulpit (v.7-9, 17, 24).
  - a. Listen to their teaching (v.7-9)
  - b. Follow their faith (v.7)
  - c. Submit to their leadership (v.17)
  - d. Honor their calling (v.24) Greet them?
3. Let there be loyalty in public (v.10-14)
4. Let there be sacrifices personally (v.15-16) Sacrifices was a major theme throughout the book. No more blood; no more animals; no more sacrifices need be made than Jesus. But there is something that God wants:
  - a. The fruit of our lips
  - b. The fruit of our labor
5. Let there be prayer mutually (v.18-21)
6. Let there be glory eternally (v.21)
7. Let there be grace limitlessly. (vr25)
