Psalm 92:1–4 Tune: Belmont, #33

Since Christ is thus comfortably set out to us, let us not believe Satan's [mis]representations of him. When we are troubled in conscience for our sins, his manner is then to present him to the afflicted soul as a most severe judge armed with justice against us. But himself, as holding out a scepter of mercy, and spreading his arms to receive us . . . In Christ all perfections of mercy and love meet. How great must that mercy be that lodges in so gracious a heart? We are weak, but we are his; we are deformed, but yet bear his image. . . . Christ finds matter of love from that which is his own in us.

~Richard Sibbes (17th century English Puritan)

Sunday Fellowship Lunch
Sunday Afternoon Worship 1:00 PM
Wednesday Prayer Meeting 6:30 PM

We encourage everyone to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

There is a meal following the morning worship service. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table in the hallway.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
