

SACRED SONGS

WORSHIPPING GOD THROUGH PSALMS

Welcome! We are glad that you have joined us. Our Vision is to make disciples who make disciples.

Today's Sermon continues our teaching series, Sacred Songs: Worshipping God through Psalms. Today's message given by Senior Pastor Jerry Barber is based on Psalm 115 and is titled, "A Song of Trust."

During our 9:30 am Prayer Service each Sunday we will be following along with the Sacred Songs prayer guide, taking time to pray over the three areas listed each week: staff, missionaries/local churches, and ministries. We invite you join us in corporate prayer.

If you are our guest today, thank you for joining us.

Help us get to know you better by completing our connect card. The card can be completed digitally by scanning the QR code with a smart phone or you can stop by the welcome desk to complete a paper card. Our volunteers at the welcome desk have a small gift for you. Be sure to stop by and introduce yourself. We would love to meet you.

PSALM 115 | A SONG OF TRUST

Background: It's never fun to be bullied, is it? Psalm 115 seems to be a response to heathen nations who taunted God's people in the Old Testament. In it, the psalmist makes it clear where the right—and wrong—places are to put our trust.

1. _____—trusting in idols is a dead-end street (1-8).

Identifying idols (Keller, Counterfeit Gods, 167-70):

- Thoughts and daydreams
- How you spend your money
- How you respond to unanswered prayers and frustrated hopes
- Uncontrollable emotions

2. _____—the LORD is worthy of our trust (9-18).

True blessing comes when we

How can we replace our idols with trust in God?
