

The Westside Pulpit

Good God, Bad God? Part 2—God, Evil and Suffering (Gen 2, 3 & Romans 5)

When discussing “the problem of evil” we need to make some things clear. Not everyone sees evil as being a problem. In saying that, there are two basic reasons it is a “problem:”

First, consider these statements describing the logical problem of evil:

1. God is all-powerful (omnipotent), He is able to prevent evil
2. God is good, He wants to prevent evil
3. But, evil exists
4. So, are 1 & 2 true, or what?

Second, there is the emotional problem of evil.

Also, there is a difference between moral evil and natural evil.

I. What is the foundation of moral evil in the world? (Gen 2:8 – 17; 3:1 – 15)

II. What about evil which doesn’t come through the hand of people? What about evil which comes through activities of nature? (Gen 3:16 – 19)

III. Conclusion: God is not the Source or Author of evil—_____ and _____ are...

IV. Why do Christians keep saying that the Good News of Jesus Christ is the answer to the problem of evil & suffering in the world? (Romans 5:14 – 21)

The Westside Pulpit

Good God, Bad God? Part 2—God, Evil and Suffering (Gen 2, 3 & Romans 5)

When discussing “the problem of evil” we need to make some things clear. Not everyone sees evil as being a problem. In saying that, there are two basic reasons it is a “problem:”

First, consider these statements describing the logical problem of evil:

1. God is all-powerful (omnipotent), He is able to prevent evil
2. God is good, He wants to prevent evil
3. But, evil exists
4. So, are 1 & 2 true, or what?

Second, there is the emotional problem of evil.

Also, there is a difference between moral evil and natural evil.

I. What is the foundation of moral evil in the world? (Gen 2:8 – 17; 3:1 – 15)

II. What about evil which doesn’t come through the hand of people? What about evil which comes through activities of nature? (Gen 3:16 – 19)

III. Conclusion: God is not the Source or Author of evil—_____ and _____ are...

IV. Why do Christians keep saying that the Good News of Jesus Christ is the answer to the problem of evil & suffering in the world? (Romans 5:14 – 21)