

AMY CARMICHAEL

1 Corinthians 13:1-8

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. 4 Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant 5 or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; 6 it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. 7 Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away..

What Does Amy Carmichael’s Life Tell You About...

...having trust in God to save through the truth and power of the gospel?

...our perception that when something seems more difficult for us, it’s a spiritual discipline or ministry that is not for us?

...how our view of God determines our courage in ministry?

...how it’s important to hear difficulties and not just success stories from missionaries?

...how women live out their nurturing nature in honor of God?

...how every Christian (both men and women) must be responsible for upholding the authority and inspiration of the Scripture and the authenticity of the gospel?

...there being no contradiction between works of compassion and the proclamation of the gospel?
