Doxology: "doxa=glory; logia=speak"

1. The _____ of the doxology is identified as "our God and Father".

- a. _____ believers are in covenant relationship with the one true and living God.
- b. Believers recognize the glory of God and the glory of Christ as the _____.
- c. God is the perfect _____ who watches over and provides for His children.

2. The _____ of the doxology is that God's glory be recognized more and more in this world.

- a. God is glorified when He takes the _____ place in one's thoughts and expressions of praise.

b. God is glorified when the _____ is taken to unbelievers.

c. God is glorified when people _____ in Him.

d. God is glorified when believers, by God's grace, _____ out their salvation with fear and trembling.

e. God is glorified when _____ and selfish glory is rejected.

3. The _____ of the doxology begins in this age and extends throughout the age to come.

"The doxology expresses a _____ concerning all the affairs discussed in the epistle. Through whatever means, in every age, and through all creatures, may God be glorified." - Richard Melick, Jr.
