

PHILIPPIANS

Salvation Begun and Completed Philippians 1:6

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 3, 2017

1. Salvation is a good work because it is a work that only _____ can do.

- a. Salvation is the work of the Father, the _____, and the Holy Spirit.
- b. Man is incapable of bringing about the good work of salvation because he is _____ in sin.
- c. Salvation is a good work because it is a work of God's _____.
- d. Salvation is a good work because it is a work of God's transforming _____.

2. Salvation is a good work because when God begins it, there will be good _____ of His work.

- a. There will be evidence in the person's life that they have been convicted of sin and the need to _____.

b. There will be evidence in the person's life of recognizing that _____ in Christ is their only hope for salvation.

c. There will be evidence in the person's _____ of participation in the gospel.

3. Salvation is a good work because since God began the work, He will most certainly _____ the work.

a. Those in whom the work of salvation has begun, will _____ in the Christian faith to the end of their life.

“Though they may fall through neglect and temptation into sin by which they grieve the Holy Spirit and come to be deprived of some measure of their graces and comforts, bringing reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet, they shall be renewed again unto repentance and be _____ by the power of God through faith unto salvation.”

- TRCC Confession of Faith

b. At the day of Christ Jesus—the final day—all believers will be _____, body and soul, to the glorious body of Christ for all eternity.