

Grace and Gratitude

Philippians 1:3-7

August 12, 2018

Giving credit where credit is due

What is the root or origin of our obedience?

Salvation is all of grace.

Seeing and savoring God and his grace yields Gospel-centered, and unshakable gratitude, joy, confidence and love.

Grace, what is it?

God begins the Work

What is the work? V 6

This work of God is a good work.

Scriptural support for God's initiation of salvation.

God continues and completes the Work

God is not finished with Christians yet.

Others can see evidence of this ongoing work on God.

Christianity, if real, shows.

What is the evidence of God's work on the soul?

Christians have a new love - new affections.

Mutual love among Christians

Christians have a fellowship in Grace and service

“Gospel love and Christian affection grow in the soil of grace and gospel service.”

Paul can Pray with Joy v3-5

He can see grace doing its work in them.
